RUSSELL POST CARDS

REPRODUCED FROM ORIGINAL PAINTINGS OF

C. M. Russell.

W. T. RIDGLEY CALENDAR COMPANY, GREAT FALLS, MONTANA

WE take pleasure in submitting herewith specimens of our C. M. Russell Post Cards, comprising in character tri-color, sepia tone and pen sketch post cards that can play in their own back yard and not feel lonesome. Don't let your Russell cards mix with forty thousand "other kinds", simply because you figure the Russell cards will help sell the others on your counter. Keep all the Russell cards in one rack, and your customer will grab from one dozen to a full assortment of those in the time that he would take to paw over one hundred of the ordinary cards and buy two because he didn't want to hurt your feelings.

Everybody knows more or less about Chas. M. Russell, and that Mr. Russell is without a peer, in respect to his ability to paint a picture truly western and typical of former cowboy and Indian life.

It will not be necessary to advertise in your local papers the fact that you carry the C. M. Russell post cards.

Some cards speak for themselves:

The Russell Post Cards reach out and shake hands with you.

The cow-boys were very kind - lending me what they called a ladys saddle horse. I found the animal rather rough but you know riding is splendid exercise and that is what the Dr. advised

Stay with him!
